Description

When thinking about leaving the ministry you love, successfully transitioning with a strong handoff requires intentionality and planning. Begin the process of creating a succession plan, whether considering leaving in one or ten years. In this webinar, attendees will:

Learn the benefits of and steps to creating a healthy succession plan.

Learn how to create a solid organizational structure that will set your successor up for success.

Begin to consider the emotional, mental, and spiritual toll on yourself as the leader when considering succession.
